

Win a New 2010 Lexus HS 250h Luxury Hybrid Every mile a hybrid, every millimeter a Lexus.

Innovation and comfort come together as never before.

Beyond uniting electricity and gas, the HS 250h pairs comfort with technology, sustainability with performance. Inside you'll find a unique combination of the hand-crafted and the futuristic, from leather-trimmed seats to a windshield that keeps you cool and eases the air conditioner's workload.

Outstanding handling, period.

Electronic Power Steering and the MacPherson strut front suspension on the HS Hybrid deliver a quick, responsive steering feel, while surprising maneuverability and control come courtesy of the double-wishbone rear suspension, achieving a level of performance comparable to more aggressive sedans.

Simply put, it's the most efficient Lexus ever built.

With an EPA-combined rating of 35 mpg, the HS Hybrid is approximately 59% more fuel-efficient than its main competitors in the segment. And the 2.4-liter Atkinson-cycle powerplant at the heart of the latest Lexus Hybrid Drive system works with the electric motor to deliver 187 total system horsepower while using regular gasoline and keeping emissions low enough to merit a Super Ultra-Low Emission Vehicle rating.

Only 300 tickets are available, so act fast!

Thanks to the generosity of Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc., the California Science Center Foundation is pleased to offer you this incredible chance to win a new 2010 Lexus HS 250h luxury hybrid.
